Summary Romans 7:7-25

- Without God's law we don't know what sin is.
- Because of God's law we know of our sin
- We sin so we know that we cannot earn salvation
- Because we cannot earn it we are dependent on God's grace
- By learning God's expectations of us we realize more and more each day how dependent we are
- This knowledge of our dependence grows into a deeper and more abiding love and we sin less
